

SERMON NOTES
“Redefining L.S.D.” | Pastor Matthew Ruttan
January 24, 2021 – Westminster Church, Barrie – Live Stream

This sermon is a part of a four-month journey through many stories in the Gospel of Luke. Today's text is Luke 5:1-11 (NIV).

In verse 5, Peter is skeptical that throwing out the fishing nets again will do any good. Why?

Peter had previously called Jesus “Master.” But now, after seeing his power, he calls him _____.

What does it mean to “fish for people”?

It can be risky to follow Jesus. Why?

Pastor Ruttan said, “You don’t have to be Jesus, you have to _____ Jesus.” Why is that good news?

Let’s redefine the acronym L.S.D. as we seek to live faithfully in a confusing world, and as it relates to following Jesus and fishing for people:

L stands for _____.

S stands for _____.

D stands for _____.
